JACKETS

Date: 5-14-02

To: ALL DEPARTMENTS

From: Chris Corley, extra chorus

I've had several inquiries as to jacket availability so I'm posting this notice to see if there is enough interest to get an order together.

Major changes from the past few years

The embroidery company that has been working with our jacket mfg. for so many years has gone out of business. So, a new embroider has been contracted and their prices and small-order capabilities are different. (Compared to the 300-500+ jackets/order norm for our mfg., our orders are small potatoes.)

Yes, we can again order the silver CHORUS, SUPERS, STAGE CREW, etc. logos added to the jacket back. The added cost is $5.

IATSE bugs are still available but must be done in the standard "red" thread.

Also, different thread colors are out unless all of the jackets in an order go to the new color.

Prices have changed substantially from the past:

sizes up to XL: $200; XL: $215; XXL: $225

The new prices DO include shipping directly to you. (Street addresses only, UPS won't deliver to PO boxes)

To figure out the size you need, find some who has a jacket and TRY ONE ON.

If you are interested in a jacket please e-mail me.
